

You can't do
anything to me
So let me tell you
that this is how
it's going to be
there will be
no more crying
from these eyes
there will be
no more deep
pain inside

I've moved on to another phase
in time, yeah
and there's a lot of things I've left behind

So ready up
for my second coming
streaming in love
know my peace, will,
keep on drumming
Cause it's alright
about to find someone to love me
it's alright
and there will be no one above we
it's alright
about to know we got it going on
it's alright
thinking and believing
positive change
into action is, power
tap in, and know
that it's alright.

(It's Alright)
