- THE ELECTRICAL JUXTIPOSITION / GOOD Vs. EVIL

You know a little "do the right thing" goes a long way in life. The Bad Electrician here, Reese The Fleece, treats cons like shit, drops dimes on his fellow maintenance workers, and profits off of his childhood underwear model photos on the website creepy.peepy.com. He hates himself so he takes it out on those around him. Karma visits him, probably daily, and instead of changing his ways he just keeps on spiraling into the abyss. Sad. Now on the other hand you have the "Good Electrician", who just does his job, treats cons with respect, and keeps a pleasant manner about him. Obviously he knows men are sent to prison "as" punishment, not "for" punishment. Life will pay him back. He may find that Pot-o-Gold at the end of the proverbial rainbow while Reesse the Fleece will end up with a wheelbarrow full of Unit 8-1's slop; and boy don't he deserve it! Hope it don't stain his 1980's Garanimals.

- ZIGGY MARLEY TO VISIT WALLYWORLD / "LIVELY UP YOURSELF!"

With the Legend that has become the vast amounts of K-2 Synthetic Marijuna here at WallyWorld Bob Marley's son Ziggy has submitted a proposal to the newly hired Director of Mistreatment, Lisa-Lisa, to hold a "Reggae Smokin' Fest" out in the West Field. Surely Ziggy will play his father's hit "Lively Up Yourself" while the Idle Prisoner Population (as the Department of Corruption likes to call the K-2 and suboxone users) blazes paper and toasts trees. Ziggy also asked if our One Woman Tour De Force of Investigative Prowess, Zena The Warrior Princess, could go-go dance in a hanging cage wearing Angie Dickenson's old "Police Story" uniform. Hope the cap fits! Tickets will be sold at the monthly Superintendent's Meeting with the Inmate Council as there ain't no other convict business going on at that Stockholm Syndrome gathering. Sadly Scary Sherry will be at a training seminar on the day of the concert. She will learn "How to win friends and influence people" at a seminar taught by Charles Manson and Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme. In honor of The Bag Lady of Corrections Ziggy will play, "No Woman, No cry." Lisa-Lisa's leftover aide "Smashley" will forget to notify Ziggy of any guests while coming in second to Scary Sherry in misplacing any prisoner proposals about the event. Buy your stamp early, make a battery lighter, and get ready to blaze with Ziggy!

- N.E.A.D.S. DOGS TO GET MORE BOTTLES WATER / CONVICTS THIRST

A grant has been secured to ensure that the NEADS dogs being trained at WallyWorld continue to get bottled water while the prisoners will be forced to slurp out of puddles after the April showers. Our Super, Mr. Burns, stated "I don't support the dog water.", but the dogs don't care; they be drinkin' large!
