

AZANDE (2)

Like most of our Fem, I to grew up in the hood, in Juvenile Detention Centers and now on California Deathrow, where I've continuously run into people that claim to be heterosexual, yet are so-called experts on homosexuality.

The religious buffs are limited to their faithbased doctrines, so I normally make quick work of them due to their precondition to ignorance.

However, my heart hurts for my own black community, because they hate deeper than the enemy, and knowledge of being a descendant of slaves and the failure to acknowledge that there was LGBTQ Africans at the bottom of those slave ships, working in fields, being tortured and forced to breed, and being bought and sold gives me great pause.

Especially the prison yard super Afro-dude that relies on books and authors that feed his all things "Whiteman", constitute why I'm the sexual energetic being that I am as an LGBTQ Black person.

It is critical to note that, some African oral traditions did not survive the horror, and alot of the many varying African customs never reached the West, on paper, but conduct, will and desire still lives.

People get real angry when they attempt to scold Black youth because of the way we act, free, rebellious, nonconforming, and often times fearless.

I celebrate my resistance because most of the loudest talkers, who are adverse to my sexuality, fail to address that it was Black Africans themselves that are responsible for converting into Islam and Christianity before, during, and after slavery, that forced us to hate and denounce our natural tribal selves, including some of the African tribes that had engaged in same-sex relationships and marriages way before the Christianity and Islam ever set foot on our Mother Continent.

King of Kone, an idiot trader was one of many that converted into Catholicism in 1491 and was a willing participant in helping the Portuguese produce sugar, silver, gold, tobacco, rum, and yes, cotton through slave labor, of fellow Africans.

The irony for me here is that, the so-called know it all's attend more focus to slavery, than it's brother, conversion. One of these twins is God, or Allah, and the other Satan, or The Devil. I say both are meaningless without the other, and since they are anti-Kush, I could care even less than I already do.

The larger question is never addressed in these often one-sided debates, and that question is, why do black people ignore what we converted from?

We dangerously assume to conclude that within all we converted from, homosexuality could not have been amongst the natural, and customary treasures lost in the fog of our lack of knowledge of ourselves, so, WOW.

By 1575, Luanda made deals with Kongo for 1.4 million slaves, oh yeah, let's not get it twisted, there was wars of resistance by black Africans, but over and over again, we learn that more converted Black people sold us out, for example;

Ndongo vs. The Portugese in a war where The N'Zangala helped the portugese. The King was poisoned, or committed suicide, depending who's telling the story, but by 1622, our beloved Ndongo Queen Warlike N'zinga converted into Christianity, and by 1657 negotiated truce's that makes me want to throw up my lunch, because, let's keep it real, how much did we really give up after so-called black leaders convert into ideologies that exist antithetical to our nature and customs, including sexuality.

We find African, after African, betraying the black man in critical moments when black unity was most needed, and don't get me started on Dhomey in 1720, he even used Womers as warriors to defeat other black tribes and just gave us away to enslavers, in fact, Dhomey was one of many Black so-called fake ass kings that had slaves himself.

Danfodio as late as the 1800's did the same thing, but trip, since he was Muslim, they forbid Muslims from enslaving other Muslims in the Sokoto Caliphate - New Kingdom, in fact, The Sokoto had the most slaves in all of Africa, so, as my Nigga ~~put~~ put it to me the other day, these fools no longer saw themselves as Africans because they had been converted into whatever it was that made them engage in the ultimate act of Black on Black Crime.

Tippo Tip was the worst of them all, so every time I see a black man in America, who has converted into Islam, I can't help but to think to myself these words;

"Ole Tippo Tip ass Nigga"

Our incarcerated LGBTQ family needs to be wise while engaging the prison yard prosecutor of the gay and bisexual closeted homies, because we need to stand on the side of love and peace, while recognizing the source of the hatred for our kind, A Jealous God.

Know that being who and what you are by nature predates every word spoken by these brainwashed Tip-toe Niggers that claim to be experts on you, when they don't even know that they are on the wrong side, spewing words of contempt for us due to miseducation, and deprived critical information that should be the evidence confirming enough to end Black on Black open displays of contempt, into a more Mother Continent awareness, that, after all of that horror, you remain, original, you.

The Sukuma and The Akaide Warrior tribes are only a few examples of how The Continent of a borderless Africa still possess one true precious natural resource that can never be redefined, you, with your LGBTQ self. Our brothers in Africa still are under the enemies spell to hate LGBTQ Africans, so we must send our hearts out to all of our people to be purged from this disease we call supremacy.

Fam, I threw these dates at you to show you that the converted ones have been performing every act of betrayal against our own even up until the day
slavery was ended in America's,
on paper, in 1865.

Set ups, captures, snitching,
and self destructive black on
black killing of humans,
spirits, hopes and customs,
families, that include the bones of our own resting
at the bottom of oceans, our
names, and yes, our sexualities,
music and medicinal cultivations,
all the way up to our ~~gods~~ Gods,
have all been policed by
the converts.

Oh Child of Canaan, blood of Kush,
Seed of our Mother Continent,
what an honor it is to know that you still exist, in me, and
on the innercity streets of America,
while remaining your natural
self, even while incarcerated,
you represent the few that have
not compromised your sexuality
to selective morality ideologies
of those just running their mouth,
trying to sound, deep.

For those of us that have been accused of changing to change into what we are, I want to convey this reality to you.

Christians and Muslims use the word Convert for a reason, you see, all of them changed from their nature, into the slave they are now.

In fact, Jesus himself was not a Christian, He was of, THE WAY, and Islam didn't show up until 600 A.D, way too late to add anything New to the table.

Please search exactly what Islam converted from, and look at how even Allah changed genders from the Female Allat, and how Islam's origins are not based in Africa, but yet, just as much of an invader equal to the European aliens of our mother continent, it was men that drew borders on earth, enjoy your inquiry.

The word Homosexual and Gay can not be found in those days, however, The word Eunuch has been found in every culture, including across Ancient Africa, yes including same sex ~~relationships~~ marriages, throughout the African diaspora.

I say that because The Black Muslims tend to Africanize Islam, and Reject themselves, and our own, for example:

About 610, Muhammad, a 40 year old Arab man of Mecca put Islam on the map. Ergo, Arabia is in Asia, not Africa, and his Monotheistic views derive from biblical origins, if Islam was of African origins, there would be no need for the use of the word "Convert" when Africans was forced to 'do so.

The Movie Roots, by Alex Haley misled alot of us that had no idea that African tribes using the word Allah in the movie, had, already been converted into Islam before slavery, and during slavery.

It is critique to know these facts before we engage prison yard Asiatic blackman versions of our history, ~~we~~ predate Islam Breh. Look at the map of the world, no, look at those old 1980-90s medallions Hip Hop Niggerz Rocked, you will never see ~~Arabia~~ connected to the African Continent, but you will find Eunuchs and Samesex Relationships in Africa before the invaders began to teach the word, Convert, and Islam is a Co-Defendant of the Human Right violations of slavery along with the Rest of them. Reparations Nigga!

We call for reparations in the West
against The White Man in America,
We yell and shout the evidence against them, yet, we cover when we turn a blind eye toward all of the Co-defendants that colluded
with those that still have not ~~paid~~ one descendant reparations.

Islam owes the Black Man equal to the degree the rest of them
do, yet we look at Homosexuality
as the ultimate demasculator
scream, so I say to you, there is no greater form of demasculation
than what Islam and its other Co-Defendants did to the Black Man.

Study for Yourself, and share them with those that Just Need to Come on home, because it is the Converters that make the Black Man
both Weak and divided, yes,
Separated, and lacking power, there is no such thing as Black power
when we continue to allow outsiders to divide us. A name change into an Arabic name doesn't make us More African.
Being LGBTQ is not a choice,
and we can prove, factually, that
converting into religion is a choice,
even when that choice is forced.
Choose an African Name, I'm Azande.
Love Yourself, and each other, and enjoy our right to use our Free Will, Not to Submit to the Jealous Gods of the enslavers,
of our people,
