

"ONLY A WHISPER"

Heart ache keeps whispering in my ear
Then I think of a happy song
That quenches the moment of sourness
Sometimes I'm able to pray through it
Other times I nurse the misery
But one thing for sure

God reminds me that he's always near
To him I want to cling
Letting heart ache rest with him
If only I felt assured & confident always
Then I could tip toe around my disappointments
And enter into God's sanctuary for ever
