

Who decides Who

When can a man be beyond SALVATION,
Too STEEPED IN SIN FOR AN EXORCISM -
And be WRITTEN OFF AS A TOTAL LOSS
Beyond The Blood That was shed on The Cross.

And Who decides Who That man should be,
That's 'beyond The blood' shed on Calvary?

How about someone who persecuted The Church,
Slandering CHRISTIANS TO THEIR DEATH FROM A LOATHING PERSON -
Whom one of us would have loved The Lord,
To banish, such a man AS PAUL?

What of a cold hearted ADULTERER
Who sent a man to meet CERTAIN DEATH -
As part of a plan to claim his wife
After he'd taken his last BREATH.

What would have

What of a man who took a life in a fight,
Then fled like a fugitive into The NIGHT -
Would he be banished, as one supposes,
What would have then become of MOSES?

What of a man who would deny The Lord,
Of course That man would be dejected -
Who, 3 times before The cock could crow
When questioned said he 'didn't know'.

Redemption must have made that victory sweeter,
As I'm sure it did in the case of Peter.

When can a man be beyond salvation,
Too deep in sin for an excavation -
And who decides who that man should be,
Who's beyond the blood shed on Calvary.

There was once a cruel slave trader
Who did his talking with his whip -
And when he'd "talked" some slave to death
Would simply toss them off his ship.

If such a vile man faced a firing squad
Perhaps we'd all like to do the shooting -
But then, who would have taken his place
And wrote the words to Amazing Grace.

You see - that vile man was John Newton

"Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me -
I once was lost, but now I'm found

"Whosoever Will" - He said,
Just call upon His name -
He promised
To love all, just the same.

Thank God, That we are saved by Grace,
And not by the opinion of man -
Thank God, That we are saved by the Blood,
Not by some church, or the Vatican.

So - Who decides who should be free and who should be bound?
Well it's Amazing Grace, How sweet the sound.
