RE: "SUPPORT LETTERS" FOR PAROLE SPECIAL REVIEW

On 3/14/2017, I was denied for Parole and given another 3-year 'set-off,' I am serving two 'stacked sentences' of (20) and (12) Years for AA/DW (Aggravated Assault w/ Deadly Weapon), and Escape (Attempted Escape) and I have been incarcerated over thirteen years, away from family and friends who love and miss me; I am also a father of four children.

I have been active in education and other programs since my incarceration and currently am close to obtaining my .E.D. and enrolled in several faith based dorm classes namely over-comers [overcoming life-controlling problems] and Exceptional-Presenter [the art of presenting broken down into a series of skills and then provides a systematic formula to master each skill] based upon the "Exceptional Presenter Book" by: author, Timothy J. Koegel]. I am also aiming at taking other classes, such as, Voyager, and Bridges to Life.

I need your support in the form of letters and/or petitions to the Parole Board for "Special Review" for wrongful denial and the 3-year set-off to the Parole Board address, and to direct your letters, e-mails, and petitions to:

c/o Board Administrator,
Austin, Texas Board of Pardons & Parole,
P.O. Box 13401,
Austin, Texas 78711

[* Call: (512) 406-5452, for e-mail address or web-site logins: www.tdcj.state.tx.us/bpp].

I am being denied parole because of my righteous networking and stance against prisoner rights-violations with groups and organizations such as the Industrial Workers of the World/(I.W.O.C.) [Incarcerated Workers Organizing Committee]; CT-ABC Para-Legal Services; A.C.L.U.; Texas Civil Rights Project; and prison Justice League; prison Abolition Prisoner-Support; University of Texas Human Rights Center, et al.

This act of reprisal is contrary to and in violation of the (TGC) Texas Administrative Code – Title 37 – Part 5. Chapter 145. Sub-Chapter-A. Rule s/s 145.31- (4).

In accordance with s/s 145.17, of Title 37, I may pursue a remedy under the "Special Review" provisions of s/s 145.17.

Respectfully,

X. Oliver E. Lister II
