

Your Miracle is Waiting - Your Father is Calling You Home

Hello everyone, God has asked me to call out to you, Our Father is calling you to come home to him, he is begging you to let him hold you in his arms as he always intended it. Everyone tells you to turn to God because if you don't you will be punished. The Father wants you to know that was never the message he wanted you to hear. We are his children and he knows better than anyone how we would react to that message, in the same way he would. I ask you this, why would God use threats to try to win us over, he knows we would fight this like a fish on the hook, after all he created us. Now I ask you, who would it please to see us fight against God and his plans for us. God is our Father and all he wants is to love us and take care of us. He does not demand that we change, he doesn't demand that we give up anything or come to him groveling for anything. All he wants is to love us and give us all the things we dream of in our hearts. Once we open our hearts to our Father's love things change, our lives get better, our dreams come true, we are healed, we are loved, we are happy and we are rich in ways we never imagined. Then it hits us, our miracle, snuck up on us and we realize that we want to share it with everyone, we see the world as he meant it to be. We want to shout it from the mountain tops, "Hey, open your eyes, can't you see how much he loves us?" Then we get to be truly blessed and see the miracles he works in the lives of our brothers and sisters. May God, our Father bless you forever, I truly love each of you.
