- MILK & COPPER WIRE MISSING IN PLYMOUTH COUNTY / FLEECE SUSPECTED

It has been reported to Free Speech Central that the Plymouth County House of Correction was missing several hundred gallons of milk used for diabetic meals as well as several hundred yards of copper wire being used to wire some security cells at the prison. Our information has it that our own "Reese The Fleece" is atop the suspect list as he was doing some journeyman work down in the old County of the Pilgrims. Now it has been further reported that ole Miles Standish is rolling in his grave after seeing how The Fleece turns a two hour job into a week long venture and the old Indian Chief King Phillip would like to come back from the dead to scalp The Fleece like the Fleece scalps the state each year with his hatred filled electrical follies. We have also learned that a large spool of copper wire was sold for $400.00 in one dollar bills and that those bills somehow ended up in the hands of Chippendales Dancers who were working at The Plymouth Pride Plantation dance club. The Staties are dusting the bills for prints.

- HALLOWEEN WILL BE REAL SCARY THIS YEAR / CHICKENHEAD RETIRING

Free Speech Central has learned that our Illustrious Food Services Director, The Green ChickenHead, will be retiring on Halloween of 2017. Our information has it that he will dress up as Admiral Halsey for the prestigious day and that he will be presented a plaque by the surviving members of The Village People. Many down in the mainline kitchen, known as "Rodent Central" for its two legged and four legged rats, wonder who will take over to serve outdated food, violate CMR menu regulations, and to eat the hot dogs without chewing them? The Head will sing a rendition of "In The Navy" and "Y.M.C.A." with the Indian and Construction worker while balancing a Halal Meal on his Squid Hat. The Keynote address at the event will be given by Nathan "Chrysler" LeBaron who will circumcise The Head and feed him kosher figs with his feet. A good time to be had by all. We say good riddance to bad garbauge.

- GUEST NAZI SPEAKS TO LGI / "NO GUESTS FOR YOU! TWO YEARS"

The good news is that Governor Michael S. Dukakis and his wife Kitty wanted to come in and meet with The Lifers' Group here at WallyWorld to work toward some solutions in public safety shortcomings. The bad news is that the powers-that-be are scared shitless and have stalled the efforts; they know The Warrior will expose them. It reminds me of the old Seinfeld "Soup Nazi" episode: Tommy T. wants us to stand in the line, quiet, not making waves, and when we don't he screams - "No Guests for you! Two Years!" When someone shows you who they are, believe them the first time! I see you Tommy T.!!!

More To Come...
