

"King For A Day"

Oh how I miss freedom
The simple life
Waiting in a cashiers line
Places that normal people call pressures
What I'd do for the simple life again
Snopping down the vegetable row
Squeezing various kinds of fruits
And bagging nuts in plastic
I wouldn't be in any hurry
I'd savor the fresh smell
It would be a fun time
Reading the food facts on labels making good choices in what to eat
Being able to select real meat
& no soy products
I would be a King for a day
Embracing freedom

OVER →