

RANT TO RAVE

with females who do neither or very very little and demand that we accept what they say as truth.

Kristy Brinkley inspired within me as a 40-something year old man the curiosity of wondering what it would be like to be sexually intimate with a 60 something or 70 something year old beautiful woman. Her daughters revived the desire and will within me to go after a younger female ("of the legal age requirement") free of guilt. But her counter parts made me feel as those it was wrong for men to accept that beauty is what it is. neither one look like they exercised or been to a beauty salon. My truest thought was that they was attacking one had multi-color hair with badly damage liver spotted skin. It could be possible that Kristy Brinkley and her daughters are of the thieves of the world's trapping females being and stealing their beauty and youth away from them like Charise T. In Snow White in the Huntsman. And these females had no choice but to watch them. I don't know what the case was, when I saw the commercial, I did not have the funds to purchase a copy of the issue. But, I know just speaking from my point of view. If I did... I would have felt like I was scamed. Like the kind of scam one get when they go to the Bunny Ranch to seek entertainment for the evening by a professional specialize massage therapist and her oral massage is not Taylor swift procliam. she got holes so big in her body-bag that you could fit them and still feel rip off. Like... what the fuck! was I just, fuck... when the next sports Illustrated swim suit issue come around... which shouldn't be that far off... I... Really pray they do better.

sports Illustrated THE LAST GRAMMIES

Celina G and the weekend. Now... it's official... we all know... Celina G. is into chocolate. we don't know if she's into chocolate 7 days a week... but we do know that she is at least into chocolate on the weekend... was she in a one piece body suit. All black... I can't recall the name of the little bit she was on the stage with. some tan skin Southern dices, with a sweet southern female accent. she use Hallelujah! Like fuck you... Amen! Like fuck off... Praise Jesus! Like a disservice. And I swear she curse more then any ethnica man like me should ever tolerate. And rightly so. she believe that she is entitle to use such language. I wonder... if I go to the CIA's... would I get Coby... Lench... or some other equably horrible white American racist thing you... can spend your money... Live next door to me... But no sampling our women. Good Lord! But it was consensual. An experience of life... for the both of us. The Queen is... Big as god nose what! I hope and prayed she would not fall out that chair. and what was up with that english girl- Did Demi Lovato singer her ass off... what's going on with Malibu mic... Lady Gaga... Hard Rock... metal! That tramp!! I swear Katty P. was - - just - repeatedly saying... I just shaved my head... fuck having a mid life crisis. But you don't see it shaved.

Artistic expression, is artistic expression. we only can pray that we who have not made it their get to express ourselves to the world at a grammy level quality.
