- DOC REENTRY SERVICES = MAYOR CURLEY BENCH OR BUST!

In another "Truth is stranger than fiction" story the DOC has done all within it's power to torpedo my reentry efforts. The consummate liars and cheats have bait and switched me like I was a tourist attempting to buy a Rolex watch in the Orange Line station at Downtown Crossing. You see first the DOC hooked me up with a convicted felon for my sober housing: ABSOLUTELY TRUE! The man they called to get me a room was convicted in a Medicaide scam to use sober house residents to bilk the system of out millions of dollars! Then, the asspuppets here held my downpayment check for four weeks for the deposit on my "reentry" room. Next the medical department refused to send my medical records to social security. So let's sum this up; they called a felon who used sober house residents in a scam to help me, they failed to send my deposit check out, and then refused to send my medical records to social security as required by the law. Fucking criminals are these scum!

The new "DOC Plan" for my reentry is to secure a spot on that bench next to the Bronze statue of Mayor Curley in Fanuel Hall, right across from Quincy Market. The back-up plan is Bench No. 3, Boston Common. These bastards had me attend a nine day "reentry" readiness class, sent me to their "specialized" "reentry" counselor, and all I got was a lous T-shirt which reads: "YOU ARE FUCKED!" Line these dregs up, blindfold them, let em' smoke a Marlboro, and then put 180 grains of Nosler Tipped, fully jacketed lead between their beedy eyes as they are truly criminals of the highest echelon.

After 18 long years in prison, with an extensive criminal history, and with only a few sheckles to my name, the DOC has fully fucked the pooch when it comes to my reentry. Who knows I may just make them famous when I get out? The Access Road to Freedom is paved with potential violent scenarios and we may even rid society of a few dry drunken trolls who knows??? I'm not Nostradamus, I don't know what the future holds, but I am angry and unprepared. Just sayin...
