

How much more?

Let's just jump into this. Did Donald say what I thought. There was too much turmoil in the FBI Department because of James Comey. Answer this how can the pot call the kettle black when Donald Trump himself has a America government in turmoil. So how can you even fine somebody for the same thing you are doing? Don't get me wrong I believe James Comey should have been gone for what he did to Hillary. But things have gotten deeper than that. Let's visit the later statement from Donald Trump. That James Comey better not release those conversation between them to the media. If I was the FBI I would suppress them cause if Donald Trump has not realize that him and his people are under investigation. So all these little side order he is seeing trying to disrupt the investigation is not going to hinder nothing. I have been suspicious of Donald Trump from the beginning because he is obvious with the order handed stuff he has been doing. A lot of times he tells on himself by the things he says and do. Like the firing James Comey was ~~was~~ suppose to be a disruption to <sup>the</sup> investigation. Second of all I believe that James Comey was about to crack this investigation open and bring some result in this investigation that would have lead to Donald Trump take down. But look like if Trump felt that way. You would have let somebody else fire James Comey instead of him. Which is obvious that James Comey was onto something. What the investigation needs to do is interrogation on Michael Flynn, Jeff session and James Comey. They need to tell the truth without fear. If they fear they need to tell the investigators hey I didn't say this because I fear such and such. The government can provide protection for them. Hopefully the corruption will be moved out of our government. What the American people needs to be thinking about the impeachment of Donald Trump because it's going to happen it's very obvious to a many things keep coming out and up. Oh Donald Trump gets impeached who is going to get the presidential seat? That leaves vice president Michael Pence. What American going to do if it's him. The one who agrees with everything Donald Trumps says and do. Personally I wouldn't think that is good idea because he is attached to a guy who is obvious with corruption and destructive behavior. So that mean if he gets the presidential seat. This corruption and destructive behavior will only continue for the American people.

The final thing I want the American people think about. What sense this make. If Donald Trump is looking suspicious that he is trying to disrupt the investigation against him. Why would you allow him to appoint a new FBI Director of his choice. Who does this. Say he do get to pick his FBI Director. Of course he going to appoint someone who is in his favor that would ~~try~~ try to shut the investigation down completely. Everything has been sloppy on the congress behave. Nah let me say something's had been sloppy on the behave of the congress. Where is the penalty against Donald Trump. He can not continue to have his cake and eat it to. How far does our government has to be buried in a whole before somebody step up say Mr. Donald Trump that is enough you got to go. for real congress and American people.
