

I walk the yard
 the yard is full
 but there's nobody there The friends I've known have all moved on looking for something new While I stand alone
 walking here alone forever
 by all the ones
 I've dared to love 7/10/17

I have to get ready for the Pair 5 Fall Art Show August 22 If I don't get another post up in time Happy Birthday My Love ☺

^{11 lbs}
 I've lost weight in this heat not feeling like I want to eat or do anything else. I will try to get back to blogging at least every other week.

I had an eye infection for a few days then as soon as that cleared up an ear infection that lasted forever - the eye infection felt like glass in my eyes. But it was the ear infection that hurt like all my teeth on the left side were on fire and I have none on the top half. ☹
