"Love on loneliness" Jonathan White Ake Thrower
Cottz est on

I want to know if the masses feel me, 'When'; with every fiber in this body of mine I say let go of burdens, "people" can tell you're hurting, and all that matters is happiness an being content with what our Creator blessed "U/S" with, and if someone has a problem, try telling them to look in the mirror an figure out why they've never (Gained) true love an happiness a feeling of relief, a belief system that's not bias the world's Surety is ment for all so we've got 1 life to live, so live people cause nothing is promise except death, an love an loneliness spoken word
