

• Back Again •

Place me back in touch with serenity
She who knows my secrets
She who holds my tearlets
In a golden locket

A piece of me
Gracing her chest
One I gave her
In those days
When she wasn't afraid to hold me

Take me back to calmness
She who knows my name
And what makes me afraid.
She who screams
She who vents

Wails slamming against window panes
Back against her throat
Take me back to the place
Where we fell in love

To fall in love
All over again
