Hey bro, man I've missed you I haven't had a friend as solid as you since the day you got arrested in Florida. Man, I'm sorry to hear about the trouble you're in and how no one is talking anymore. I think a lot about the old days, we had some pretty good times. Look, I want to keep in touch with you, I'm almost done with my sentence and it looks like this writing thing is going to work out. Maybe I can help you if you get locked up but no matter what happens I would like to hang out again, give you some options besides staying in KY, I'm eventually moving to California and if I've been published I'm going to start a couple businesses. I sure could use someone I trust watching my back. One of my ideas is a large role playing theme park called HerdRealm. Man, hit me up Chuckie and let's do this thing right, you are one of the best bros I've ever had and I got your back until I die or even after.

I don't know if you heard, but my mom died in her sleep in 2010 - she always liked you bro, and my brother Richard killed himself in 2011. The rest of my family abandoned me. Tell the rest of the crew to hit me up, I ain't forgotten them and I'll help 'em straighten up. It ain't over until I say it is, we will roll until the wheels fall off. Love you bro.
