"Execution Day"

yes - its august 24, Catfish has 11 hours to live. Its bothering me. I know the brother would rather die, than spend his life in prison being told where to go what to do, putting up with staff abuse corruption and the idiotic behavior of inmates, but it still doesn't make me feel any better. state assisted suicide, thats what this amounts to. Been thinking about him since I woke up. Was thinking about him when I went to sleep.

I remember us speaking, in may or june and I told him bro I don't want to see you die, "He seen the sadness, he tried to comfort me saying he didn't want life in prison, he'd rather go to heaven, still didn't make me feel any better. I know he doesn't want it, but I'm hoping the united states supreme court steps in and stops the execution, and looks at the retroactivity of Hurst.

Cause he, we, were sentenced under an unconstitutional statute. Hurst v. Florida, 136 S.Ct 616 (2016), Hurst v. State, 202 So.3d 40 (Fla 2016) Its unequivocal that Florida's death penalty statute, that Mark Asay was sentenced under, is UNCONSTITUTIONAL violating the 6th and 8th Amendments.

12:01 PM. Catfish has 6 hours left to live. I'm sure Gloria is a mess, she loves her brother. I pray the US supreme will step in.

5:30 PM. Well the brother has less than an hour to live. seen Gloria on the news crying, dang, I broke out in tears seeing her crying and hurting. An eye for an eye tooth for a tooth, but we know thats bull. Cause a rich man isn't going in that death chamber.

6:53 PM. seen it on the news Catfish was pronounced dead at 6:22 PM. yes it made the world a better place didn't it? No all it did was open up old wounds and created new ones and caused the taxpayer's alot of money to commit this genocide in their
