Dear Sir or Madam Prospective Publisher,

If you like my blogs space, and especially my written works, I request that you try publishing my two collections of short fiction. There is on this blogs space a number of samples of all kinds of my writings.

My two collections of short fiction:

A NUTTER'S TALES, the drawings and humor of an incarcerated felon

EVERYTHING THAT CREEPETH, eight dark brooding tales

I also have a partially complete third collection of short fiction that I have thus far been unable to complete because of a preoccupation with law.

Sincerely,

James Riva W38533
