

Duplicity of interracial relationships

There is a myth that has been distributed that a lot of people dislike interracial relationship because they feel like people should stick with their own race. 55.7% probably do feel like this. But the other percentage may not feel like they have a different reason for being bias against interracial relationships. I feel that you if you find love. Then go for it - follow your heart. Nobody can tell you who to love. But this is a subject I have been thinking about long, long, long time. I have been observing interracial relationship and listening to others talk about it. For myself I am very open minded. Because I am African Native American mixed. I have dated other races. I often tell my children whoever you choose to be with. I will accept them, why cause I cannot tell you who to love. My baby son made a confession to me. He said he loves Caucasian women because they are Drama free. I said what is wrong with African American women. He said they are a lot of Drama. I said baby, that is stereotyping. He said ma's that is truly the way it is. I said wow this is a subject I been wanting to talk about. With my son he has adopted his outlook on African American ^{women} based off of a few black women acting out of character. Who to say they really was ~~not~~ acting out of character. They could have been expressing themselves. Everybody has a right to do. For me it's me thing to love someone ~~because~~ because they have great qualities about them. Then to fall in love with somebody who ~~can~~ you can run over. If you tell them to jump. They jump without a explanation. A real woman going to want to know why are I jumping. Let's do this together. A lot of men in this generation want women who they can persuade ^{them} to do what they want them to do. So stereotyping leads to some of these interracial relationship, which is a problem. That can lead to a divorce if married or a ~~break~~ break up of the couples. Some of our women feel the same about our black men feel that they are Drama so they go get in a relationship with the opposite ~~for~~ race only. For the relationship fail. We got to stereotyping who we be with an how they should be. The second big failure and idealistic mindset of males and women. Oral ~~sex~~ sex, strippers - seducing and night of exotic fun. A lot of men and women end up marry or in a relationship because of what the partner done for them in the ~~sex~~ strip clubs, bars, and how good they perform oral sex on them. Which is a poor reason to be in a interracial relationship a lot of times how it happens. After a couple times of wild sexual encounters. Suddenly decision is made to be together forever or as a couple. It end up being a relationship based off benefits. One thing I know about women they look for our black guys weakest point. Our ~~black~~ African American men are weak for oral sex. Some will sell their soul for good oral sex. Just like men in this generation some women will sex their soul for oral sex. Nothing is not wrong with being a sexual being. But when it have you getting into the wrong relationship for the wrong reason or doing things out of your character you need to seek sex addiction counseling. Some of our interracial children are coming through ^{the} relationship not because they want children but because of sexual benefits only to be left to the foster care and adoption agencies to take care of. Is me that is sad with any race who bring children in the world just because of a night of fun. This is the part I don't like about interracial relationship. When it's really based on sexual relationship. Not substance or ~~found~~ a healthy foundation. That is why so many divorce are happening now.
