So I was finally approved for a level promotion. It's no guarantee that I would will maintain the level promotion or be promoted to level 4. What you need to understand is the constant manipulation and brain-washing assaultive behavior that they conduct. And the ~~government~~ courts allow them to that such conduct which is illegal by any standards of law. If a citizen who's (not a government official) committed such act would that person would surely have been prosecuted and placed in prison.
