The wisdom of the week corner

What is wisdom? The ability to make good use of knowledge, ability to recognize right from wrong: good judgment

Quotes:

The best lesson in life is the one you learn yourself first. So many people want to teach others a lesson. Did you learn it yourself first?

Do you have to have the last word on a conversation or heated argument? A gentle answer turns away wrath but a harsh word stirs up anger. President Donald Trump and North Korea

In order to speak up effectively: Imagine standing before a crowd and loudly voicing an unpopular opinion. To be effective when you go against the crowd you must (1) have the facts (2) have the right attitude (3) state clearly what you believe

Because it is human nature to accept opinion as facts. We must be ~~careful~~ especially careful when voicing our negative opinions. What we say heavily ~~influence~~ influence the actions of those who trust us to give sound advice

Are we willing to ~~lose~~ lose some of our status so that everyone will benefit?

sometimes we jump at a solution because it is the lesser of two evils but still is not the right action to take. When someone proposes a seemingly ~~workable~~ workable solution, first ask "is it right?"

Donald Trump and the NFL kneeling

Donald Trump has refused to put his hand on his chest for a couple events where the national anthem was presented. Check your social media. So here's it that he figures the NFL players should be penalized for kneeling at the football games. Practice

What you preach Donald Trump's I hear that everyone saying the NFL players is disrespecting our military. For real America; let's be truthful half of our service men ~~came back~~ and women that has came back from war, - they found themselves homeless, without benefits, nobody caring about them, having problems with the VA meeting their medical needs, having mental health issues that nobody wanted to hear. Our veterans was suffering and still is suffering, we getting somewhat better than what you call disrespectful. Now transgender is not wanted in our military. Does it matter as long as they can fight for our country. Please let's not talk about disrespectful towards our military, because the government has been very disrespectful and hypocritical to our troops. I hear people in society saying leave politics out of the NFL just play sports. Is our flag dealing with politics? such as government, the national anthem and our military. All symbolize our country which is dealing with government. So what you saying is take those things out, so we can play sports. I would never want that to happen, ~~but we give~~ but if we going to represent our troops, the national anthem and flag. Let's stop being hypocrites to our soldiers, to your own people in America. Connect the social, civic, voting injustice and stop the racism. Everyone is ~~entitled~~ entitled to their opinion but when you give your opinion it's good to think about the whole situation and everybody it will effect - not just what you feel is right. I want to establish that Every American has a freedom of speech according to the amendment. But Donald Trump seem to think because he is the President of United States nobody has a right to freedom of speech except for himself. ~~and~~ feels he can say whatever he wants. That's not the way America works. What is sad, that some of our American is going along with this foolishness. NFL players has the right to express themselves just like anyone else beside they are American citizens and taxpayers. Stop being petty American people and Donald Trump. If we want to blackball somebody it should be the white supremacist. They can have a freedom of speech but NFL can't That is dead wrong

Written by Jennifer Johnson The wisdom of the week Corner

Why is it wrong to judge a person by his or her economic status? Wealth may indicate intelligence, wise decisions and hard work. On the other hand it may mean only that a person had the good fortune of being born into a wealthy family. Or it can even be the sign of greed, dishonesty and selfishness. By honoring someone just because he or she dresses well, we are making appearance more important than character. Sometimes we do this because (1) poverty makes us comfortable: we don't want to face our responsibilities to those who have less than we do. (2) we want to be wealthy too and we hope to use the rich person as a means to that end (3) we want the rich person to join our church and help support it financially. All these motives are selfish, they view neither the rich nor the poor persons as a human being in need of fellowship. We say Christ is our lord, then we must live as he requires, showing no favoritism and loving all people regardless of whether they are rich or poor. This is where our government is trying to make the ~~poor~~ poor and the rich (richer). Our core values towards the poor has been despised by much of our ~~affluent~~ affluent society forever as well their simple values. The American people should be entitled to it all.

Freedom of healthcare
Freedom of income tax increase
Freedom to medicare, medicaid
Social security, etc, welfare
Freedom of speech
Freedom of Va. care and benefits
Freedom to be in the military not based on gender or sex

Freedom to live ~~in~~ in whatever country you want to

Freedom of race
Freedom of justice
Freedom of Gender
