Greetings Mrs Sulra,

Blessings 2 U-n-Urs

Ur most welcome 4 the longest answer. It's what I do " My Q 2 B2G 4 my body - as I say. The reason I write so much: Guess my "way with words" came from always striving 2 hone my craft. It's like if everything been said B4 - how do I say it differently? (This just in) How 2 build a better ~~more~~ mouse trap w/ words?? Meanwhile I fashion myself as a poet of sort... Thanks 4 the compliment I store it in my journal of encouragement. Thanks 4 the last ~~impressions~~ impression.

Thanks 4 teachin me "dystopian" thought I could figure out the meaning, but I looked it up NE way. Can't wait 2 work it into a sentence! Well, what R the odds? Guess what? ~~Yes~~ I do have (access 2) a TV (13" clear RCA) we allowed 1. Plus they got big ones in our clayroom (lavin. room) NE way Mrs Julia like 2 months ago guess what they showed (on the prison movie channel)? Yup THE CIRCLE I didn't watch it all the way through. Since it was on repeat I kinda turned back-n- 4th sometimes watchin it 4 like 10-20 min stretches. ~~Yes~~ Had I knew we were gonna meet I would've watched it all at once! Ur commentary helped me understand the gist of the story. It kinda lost me when I seen the movie - probably cause my lack of tech experience. Found it hard 2 follow plus on the "lil screen" U can barely see what they text'd on the phones etc. - Parts I remember -

Emma's character goin 2 work 4 the company, her seen an old friend - chasin her 2 the bathroom? Her given the live presentation 2 have the world help her locate a wanted criminal; cheers 4 her 2 locate her long lost friend (mate), his wanted 2 B left alone, n- his live crash that ended his life, then "Emma" turn the tables n- use the Circle's technology against Tom Banks n- dude that played "Spence" in King of Queens. wonder if they got the book at the library? Not like I got time 2 read it, though. or maybe I do? I seem 2 keep an overbooked schedule. I know it's cause my light shining ☺

My bad - I just assumed U were part of between the bars crew. Not sure how all this stuff works on the free-end. From what I recall from the introductory sheet was "btb" was a non profit organization givin prisoners a voice. I send in "post" then when they have some helpful / thoughtful / social consciences of college students scan my writings into the computer n- we go from there. I can put drawings / pictures on the blog 2 but if I want em returned I gotta enclose an SASE--

Even though U not w/ "btb" the thank U still stands

Well it would be a million times easier for me to continue bloggin w/ "btb" after my release, than try 2 learn how 2 do it on my own.

My release is imminent & it's God's fault!! I seen Parole on October 30 - n- was given an 11 month defer.

In free english I have 2 do 9 more months B4 they will reconsider let'n me go home. But I'm believing that the God I serve can have them use the option 2 reduce my defer, 2 6 months.

Sorry prison politics is complicated - n- hard 2 explain. So I'll tell u like this. March 2018 keeps comin 2 me so I'm hopeful that God can have me released then or B4 then. No matter what I'm goin to "blog" it soon I have a definitive date. Thanks 4 askin -

My left foot is comin along pretty well. I'm back usin it as a hand - occasionally 😊 Thought all the scarring would go away but - nope. So I got lol islands that look like this →

I love it though. Broken but beautiful One thing I've learned is - scars in themselves R conversation starters. So I'm grateful 4 the opportunity 2 share "that" story - n- many others.

I'm grateful that u knew so many languages, I'm sure my ~~handwritten~~ handwriting is German 4 the most part 3/4 Have u ever combined or mixed words when goin from one dialect 2 the next? Or went back-n- forth in one conversation? I've seen people who speak Spanish do that! So may I ask - I do it like French "a lot" sure u have an intriguing answer - I agree that knowing more than 1 language "broadens something in ur mind" Remember I started learning Spanish in 7th I felt all gushy-n-excited inside -n- just had an aura of being well-read/cultured. Sadly - kinda - I didn't finish the class!

Right!! if u don't have a word 4 it. How can u think it. I understand things can be confusing. I have dealt with it just by reading the Bible. Part of it was written in ~~Heb~~ Hebrew, then parts in Greek/Aramaic. Then it was translated into 16th century English, -n- so on -n- so 4th. So at Bible study it's plenty arguments about - "well it should've been this word" or this word mean. Example the King James Bible says "Charity never faileth" but charity means agape love (unconditional love) then u hear how u gotta learn Hebrew etc 2 get the full extent of God. Make me wanna pull my hair out. Wish there was just 1 version of the Bible.

On a way happier note - u came 2 my mind last weekend. Yup. I was at a weekend seminar on fatherhood where the leaders were a married couple. The lady's name was Ilze. She had a thick accent as she was from a country somewhere by Sweden? the Baltic Sea? She swed where but I don't remember. She even mentioned her native tongue which I don't recall. But it was cool cause at the end she spoke John 3:16 in her language.

I just remember "Dios" (God)

Smile

Happy "love 2 write Day" Guess that's if I been writing since 9:30am (-12:30pm then 2:30-5pm then 6pm-9:25pm (now)) ~~where~~ now I gotta calm down - n- relax. 4am comes around pretty quick.

U R gon 2 go far in life. I can see it in U word choices - n- well roundedness. U seem cultured, thoughtful, self-motivated, relaxed, joyful, driven - n- self aware.

U will have a ~~great~~ great day because it's what U do ☺

respectfully
