

Reply Id: 3974

Dear Jen,

Life has been extremely hard this year. Losing my mom has been my worst nightmare. But you have been such an amazing friend and you have made such a difference in my life in such a short time. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for all of your help with everything and thank you for being who you are. You are an amazing person.

It's rare to meet good people while in prison and I almost gave up on everything after my mom died. Why live when I have no mom to be proud of me or to see me change & grow into a better man, but having friends like you, that makes it worth it. So I can never repay you but I can show you how deeply grateful I am. As you know, our banquet went great and next year we hope to improve on that. You helped me accomplish so much, if I can ever help you with ANYTHING, please do not ever hesitate to ask me.

Take care my friend, I have so much to do but I'll be in touch. Ciao amica mia.