

MENTORS 2 MEN

Presents

Something to Think About

M-2-M Encourages, and challenges individuals in each dormitory to formulate mentoring sessions within your respected wings. To have men, young and old consciously and collectively, start engaging for at least one hour a day, twice a week in dormitory discussions that involves critical thinking.

M-2-M will provide an interesting topic to initiate the conversation or someone can bring a thought provoking topic to the group session that pique the minds and allows the conversation to flow from there.

Our desire in M-2-M is for every male within this environment to start utilizing your minds effectively to its highest capacity to bring about change for the betterment of all. So strive to exist as our greatest self and remember always that in order to change, it starts from within! It starts with you! It starts with a thought!

Just something to think about...
