Mrs Julia,

Dec 23, 2017

Thanks 4 callin me "Mr. Antoine" That's cool of u.

As always ur letter was most welcome, as well as a much needed break from prison. Herd knows I'm actively seekin 2 discard the habitual habit of communicating in prison jargon -n- incarcerated nuances. Ready 2 transcend -n- speak on the things of the free(er) world. Time 2 learn -n- B able 2 converse on things like "the internet", pod cast, Ted Talks, Google, drones, i-"everything", etc. like pension, healthcare, 401k, life insurance ...

Yeah, it was funny that the Circle was played on the "institutional channel" months ago. I have posted an old "prison" movie schedule 2 help u get a feel 4 how the movies R shown. Background info. The prison I'm in (RGC2) has it's own TV station, well actually 2. On 1; channel 4.1, they play various genres of music -n- broadcast the "Rock Report" prison goin ons like who u have 2 contact but what, rule changes, where 2 send $ orders, up comin events -n- what not. On the other channel, 4.2, they show movies -n- documentaries. Nothin over PG-13. U can request they show a particular movie but ultimately the teachers union has control over it. As u can see it's one movie per day that's looped. ~~From~~ from 7:30am - 12:30am I watch some of the movies but most don't peak my interest. I'm more into documentaries especially but poor people, prison, -n- overcomers. Animals - Sometimes -

Back 2 the Circle - guess I'm a "criminal" 2.

I'm all 4 privacy though my life calls for requires me 2 B transparent. (I think I balance it pretty well - I have a single cell helps. (Thank U God) - All in all I think technology can go a bit 2 far. I like self driven cars, cause I'm not a fan of driven - personally. But I enjoy doing other lol things that make us human! Like vacuum, iron, wash clothes, write, clean, turn on the lights, pray 2 God 2 help me remember appointments / find lost things. Does that make sense? Personally I don't want so much technology / digitalization that I no longer enjoy / love the things that make bein human worth it. How long B4 a machine comes out that changes the wheels, drapers? ~~or~~ or blows ur nose 4 u, or dresses u etc. I'll pass. Maybe prison bein arehave is 2 blame but I'm ok w/ that. Can't wait 2 get out - n - iron my clothes - socks included. I don't get me wrong I'm gone get a computer but that's about it. Still even w/ that sure I'm gone draw / write with regular pen-n-paper every now-n-then I'm just a simple guy.

Thanks 4 "fingers crossed" 4 my next parole hearing. Hopefully ur fingers don't hurt 2 much. If they do - take a break. I R U able 2 cross all 8 of ur fingers. I can cross both sets of fingers on my left hand - no problem ~~but~~ but w/ my right hand I need help.

which is weird cause I'm right handed.
Still wantin 2 get my final decision from the chairperson. while down so I keep prayin they reduce ~~the~~ the time ~~to~~ fill my next hearin from July 2 February. X not? I believe in God - n- He believes in miracles ;)

Wey Mrs Sulon

MERRY CHRISTMAS

-N-

HAPPY NEW YEAR

I know u have fun things plan'd. So doel u get into the whole upside down X-mas tree craze? If u don't celebrate Xmas please I give me 4 assumin - thanx.

So let me get this right? u currently live in Western Europe? what's it like? Sorry I don't get out much. Try 2 travel through books but it's not the same. Hopefully I can do like 2-5 yrs on parade then is done. After that think I need a pardon 2 be able 2 travel abroad. Do want 2 go 2 the Netherland. I knew in my C? that all er Africa isn't destitute, stinky, rubbish - knew like ~~every~~ <sup>every</sup> other country it has beautiful breathtaking/exhilarating places. waterfalls, jungles, safaris ; also want 2 go 2 the remote villages that still have kings-n-queens. Hope 2 learn some of the natives ingenuity as well. Also want 2 go

2 Ireland. Seen some beautiful castles - n - just across of pretty grassland one time on Ireland by the air on PBS. Plus far as I know my last name British - n - means "sea-warrior"

Regarding the mixing of languages I admire Ur social consideration ~~a~~ not ask how "it" works in an effort 2 not B rule. I haven't asked people either, mainly because of lack of relationship w/people who speak english as a 2nd language.

But from what I observed it seems 2 B a subconscious thing. At times the switchin seems 2 stem from frustration, of one just wantin 2 get his or her point across. whether the hearer understands it or not. Example - as a teenager an argument with a girlfriend led 2 her goin off on me. Mid stride in the verbal tussle she switched 2 Spanish. I had no idea what she was sayin but got the gist 2 leave as she started yellin - n - pointin 2 the door.

From that - n - other situations I've observed it seems it's easier 2 communicate in a way that's fluent 2 U, then search 4 the ~~is~~ right word/words in Ur 2nd 3rd or 4th language. Some people seem 2 do this when they excited as well. They just want 2 get they point across in a way that's "natural"
4 them.

I'm guilty of doin the same. I know "proper english" but when I'm talkin 2 stuff it's not an-common 4 "ebonics" 2 spew out. Specially when I'm on a roll - Caught myself on the verge of doing this at parole, interviews, hearings, Dr. appointments, etc. - then I have 2 make a conscious effort 2 "slow down" - put my anxiety 2 the side - n- articulate myself in a manner that effectively communicates the message 2 the hearer.

In my heart somethin tells me that if U politely asked somebody why they "switch" languages most will respond "I didn't even noticed I did that" After we became conscious of it then we start 2 see/observe it in other people/ourselves. Well that's my story. NE way.

Thank 4 explainin on why U prefer French. U gave several reasons I've never heard of like "U can play with that language... it's dramatic - it's poetic" As cliches would have it French is simply loved cause "it's - Romantic" Oddly enuff my 1st name ~~was~~ is French ~~is~~ know N I design clothes. We both know France is known 4 it's fashion. Designs in my name ~~is~~

Yes it's a positive thing 4 me NE way, far as havin 2 wrestle with Biblical texts - n- their meaning. It's where I find fulfillment ~~in~~ in life!! I have 2 dig - n- search just like an archeologists Proverbs 25:3 - It is the glory of God 2 conceal a thing; but the honor of kings is 2 search out a matter

where do I find fulfillment in life?

Can't teach what I don't know/haven't researched.
But the beauty 4 me is often when I'm reading the Bible God will speak 2 my heart - n- give me a dawn 2 earth understanding / parable 2 help me grasp the meaning of a word / situation Quick example in 2nd Timothy 2:15 He showed me "approved" means "equipped". My Heavenly Father has also shown me the spiritual side of the texts that lies beneath the printed words. Amen.

well I've saved "bunches" I'll leave U w/a design that I still have (I sent the rest home)
