

PEER REVIEW ANNUAL 2018

In March, Papyrus Collective Group will begin posting a series of book reviews as part of the Write or Die Zine: Peer Review Annual (PRA) edition, featuring books, zines, and other writings by California Death Row authors here at San Quentin State Prison.

For those of you who'd like to include your comments as part of these upcoming reviews, you can find the first two books in review for our March post line up online:

- OUR LAST MEALS? BY, ALBERT 'RV-AL' JONES
(@AMAZON) $20.00 (US)
- TAKE ME TO HEART BY, CRANDELL OJOBE MCKINNON
(@LULU.COM) $5.00 (US)

We'll be sharing your comments and/or questions with these authors, and their replies will be relayed directly back to you. It's up to the authors how they want to respond to individual comments or questions related to your reviews.

In the meantime, I invite your comments or suggestions how to introduce our PRA's to the BTB platform, such as specific author/titles you'd like for us to include in our next PRA post line up. And look for more PRA updates leading up to our March debut. Thank you.
