

Love Note

My Dearest Jeannie, My Heart;

I was walking the other morning and noticed the dew on several blades of grass. For an instant, just for an instant my love, it seemed that the world stopped around me and there was only beauty and there was your face in the clouds smiling down on me. Then my foot came down and the world came back, and things were back to the way they were. But, for that instant my love I knew peace and love. That instant lasted but for a split second of eternity. Yet for me it was a split second of my ^{your} lifetime. I know without a doubt that this beauty would have never happened if it were not for you and the love we have always had for one another. Thank you for being who you are my dear love. Thank you for sharing your love with me. Thank you for holding my heart in yours. Thank you for showing me the sunshine through your eyes, the way you see it on rainy days. Thank you for all the beauty my love. You always make smiling easier when you are here in my heart. "Don't judge me by my past my love, I don't live there anymore." If there's anything I've ever said or done to make you doubt my love for you I am truly sorry my love for you are truly the air I breathe and I could not live without your love in my heart. Until next time my love. ♡

I'll Love You Always
Forever & Ever, Your Steve
