

Valentine's Day 2018

When it is so quiet
I can hear the dust
blowing across the floor

When the light is so bright it lights up the dark
under the bed

When I can hear
all the laughter
from out of nowhere

When I feel the pain
from within my being deep within my heart

When I begin to cry
tears coming from my eyes rolling down my cheeks

When I realize
this is all there is the lights are out

When I understand
there is no one else
I'm here alone
