

Corrupt Companions In The Church

So many times we think people love us in the church. But the truth of the matter. You see like wise. For decades I been going through persecution with people who walk through the same church doors. Some think they are better than the next sister or brother. Some mean as a rattlesnake, some wants to say who is saved and not saved. Everytime God gives me assignment or open up a door for me they drag my name through the mud and try to hinder my ministry. When I was over a ministry they dragged my name through the mud with all kinds of lies out of jealousy. If there was somebody in the body of Christ who was for me. The other sisters and brothers would go to them. Say Honey she don't know what she is talking about. Girl she misquoted that scripture or that's not what that scripture talking about. I even had church sisters monitoring me in my dormitory room by coming to see if I was reading my bible in my room. The other half would literally spend all the their time monitoring me and my life. ~~The~~ Some of the other ones when I talk they get mad. Begin to war in their heart against me. I had some to be bold to tell me they didn't want hear what I had to say. My pastor who I was best friend with and worked in the ministry with her. I was basically her armor bearer.

I was growing so in the Lord. She became jealous of my growth because I had passed her in knowledge and my walk with Christ. She begins to do things to me out of jealousy. The person gave me wrong counseling out of jealousy. Thanks God for the Holy Spirit and word of God. So in the church lifestyle you have to shake the mean spirit, jealous people, the gossiper and talebearers completely out of your life. Some church people are broken on the inside. While I am walking around with the joy of the Lord on the inside of me. They throw hints about me saying you don't have to be strong all the time or have to put on for everybody else as a strong being. One thing about me; what bothered me last year did not follow me into the year of 2018. Because I refuse to cry over spoil milk. My yesterday is not my today. There's might be but not more. It's like if you're walking ~~to~~ around complaining and sad those individual are happy something is wrong with you. Because they are secretly jealous of you anyway. I've always had the mindset that any fruit don't belong on my tree. I shake it off before it take root in my life. But however sometimes I have procrastinated on getting rid of the fruit before it take root. I want you to tell yourselves honey I might get time for your foolishness this year. Go ahead on your way. you're not going to weigh me down this year. I am shaking

You off right now. Say to yourself I am laying my weights off according to Hebrews 12:1 therefore since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witness, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

Deliverance from corrupt companions

Father in the name of Jesus, I ask you to open the eyes of _____'s understanding, that he or she might not be deceived by the influence of corrupt and depraved people. Thank you for causing him or her to come alive and awakening him or her they might return to sober sense and their right mind. Father I forgive his or her sins and come before you asking for mercy—mercy that ~~youself with cords~~ triumphs over judgment. Thank you for drawing them to yourself with cords and bands of love and for him/her to repentance with your goodness. Then he/she will separate himself from contact with contaminating influences and cleanse himself/herself from everything that would defile the spirit, soul and ~~body~~ body. In the name of Jesus. I bind his or her mind to the mind of Christ that he or she might live and conduct himself/herself honorably and becomingly as in the open light of the today. I loose him/her from the wrong thought patterns of his/her former lifestyle that were controlled by a set of values inspired by the adversary, who misleads those who have not come alive to Christ. I ask you to give him/her a willing heart, that he/she might be loyally subject (submissive) to the governing (civil) authority - not resisting, not setting himself up against them. He/she shall be obedient prepared and willing to do any upright and honorable work. He/she shall talk as a companion with wise men, and he/she shall be wise. _____ is pardoning through the name of Jesus. and because he/she confesses his name, he is victorious over the wicked one because he has come to know and ~~recognize~~ recognize and be aware of the father. As _____'s mind is renewed by the word, the word dwells and remains in her/him and her/him and her or him cannot practice sinning because she/he is born of God. The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made _____ free from the law of sin and death. Thank you Father, for watching over your word to perform it, in Jesus name. Amen.
