"A Letter"

1.

A letter is the warmest way
To bid a friend the time of day.
To keep intouch which brings the smiles,
Across the very longest miles.
A wealth of strength and hope,
Is neatly tucked inside each envelope,
Reminding loved ones that you are
At least in heart and not very far.
In any state, country, or camp
The wealth is powerful beneath a postage stamp.
For memories that never age,
Are written down on every page.
And ~~that~~ though it's nice to use the telephone,
One of the sweetest pleasures ever known,
Are moments shared in thoughts we send,
That can be read and re-read again and again.
