life. i grew up archaiclly so 2 speak no social media in prison. n growin up couldn't afford computer ,so all i know is hands on experience with life . run'n round n havin fun with my imagination . we did manage 2 get videogames when i was in like 8th grade. sports games were cool,but not cool enuff 2 julia

i'm back :)
how was valentines day?
so u live n the Netherlands? help me understand ? not a geography buff.sorry... what's the name of the country ? i can do densely populated. it's y i got a single cell on a smaller unit . couldnt b around 117 dudes all day. 2 much yelling n screaming 4 my blood. so besides cleaning what do u do 2 make the most of life?
speaking of cleaning had 2 do some yesterday . dropped a chili dog tray just outside my cell. so i went all-spring cleaning mode,which is how i typically clean anyway .
old fashioned i like to use the hand broom then get down on my hands n knees then get every nook n cranny. these cell get pretty dusty.2 the point of being heavily populated with dust balls n gravel from outside. i get slack 4 cleaning that way but its ok. one older guy n a wheelchair i had 2 take care of thought i was degrading myself .he equated my method with being a slave:(but i assured him i clean my cell thesame way n when i have a house it'll b the same .
down 2 30 seconds again gone write more tomorrow africa,over looking the most beautiful of scenery .not sure how 2 go about traveling when i get out.

guess i'll ask my agent. if it takes a pardon then i trust god will bless me with 1 if it's his will 4 me 2 travel abroad. in the meantime i'll eep traveling abroad through written words yes thats a special history with the berlin wall. i recall watchingit b tore down ,seemingly brick by brick,on 20/20 with barbara walters so what countries have u been? what's ur favorite ?

yup! i knowthe motherland is way prettier than potrayed on tv. n i know africa aint the only country with starving kids. the media never portrays that egypt is in africa . or how the egyptians were black not arab. take a closer look at the pyramids ! or the sphinx anyway i want 2 go 2 the poor villages in africa 2. love their ingenuity . how they make huts,how they preserve stuff without a fridge,their rights f passage how they dont throw stuff away,n their wise sayings . also want 2 hear them use the african greeting I AM WE so have u started ur translating career? the fact that u like all the struggling in translating shows u can do it. smile. it also reveals that u have a warrior spirit n that the 'labor pains' of translating r worth it as the child (poem) is brouht 4th. 'i see the head !'

so writing a poem ur content with bring u fulfillment . thats neat. do u care 2 share? also what's ur favorite poem in Gorilla,my love?

well i find fulfillment in regards 2 poetry when i know in my heart it will touch someone else heart or get them 2 say-i never thought of it like that
