Share the Gospel Message

Imagine Jesus leading you down the bank and into the Jordan river to be baptized with him, and then picture yourself coming up from the water to hear God's voice, "This is my beloved son/daughter, with whom I am well pleased."

What a powerful, yet simple message: We are good, whether we believe it or not. We are good people who sometimes make bad decisions, but we are good nonetheless. As sons and daughters of God, we can all meet Jesus on the bank of the Jordan river, we can all sink deeply into those life-giving waters, shed our failures, and re-emerge knowing we are good, we are loved, and we are God's.

Most importantly we re-emerge, made new and ready again to pursue the mission God has laid before us. Just as Jesus began his ministry after his baptism, we too are called to share the Gospel message of love and hope with everyone we meet from the moment we are baptized to every relief-filled moment after we leave the confessional. But the Baptism of the Lord goes beyond these sacraments: It is a message of rebirth and re-missioning for all Christians and every person, whether they know it or not, for we are all deeply loved by God.

Dear Lord, help me be a person who isn't too proud or too reticent to proclaim your goodness in the midst of a situation. Rather than letting my gratitude be some sort of afterthought, may it be at the core of whatever experience I'm having, and may I have the presence of mind and integrity of heart to express it for all to hear. You deserve nothing less from me, Lord, now and forever.

*Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving;
make melody to our God on the lyre.
He covers the heavens with clouds,
prepares rain for the earth,
makes grass grow on the hills.
He gives to the animals their food,
and to the young ravens when they cry.*

—Psalm 147:7-9

BAD BUZZ !!!

THOUGH I HAVE HAD THE PLEASURE TO READ MANY COVER STORIES IN MAGAZINES ON SUPERMODEL KENDALL JENNER - INCLUDING 2017 SEPT VOGUE, I HAVE NOT READ
HER CURRENT VOGUE COVER STORY!

UPDATE: WITH A WORRIED MIND !!!
THIS IS MY FERVENT PRAY

SOURCE: USMAGAZINE.COM / LOOSETALK
MAY 8, 2017, P 7 [W/PIC]

KENDALL JENNER
ON BEING LESS GIRLIE
THAN HER SISTERS,
"Kardashian."

"I think I get that from my dad [Caitlyn Jenner]. I'd say I'm more of a Jenner than a Kardashian."

THAT'S WHAT THEY SAY!!!:

Ostensibly, Kendall discusses with uncertainty her "sexuality"
[e.g., whether or not she is gay, etc.]

Previously, in a Magazine Interview explaining her feelings about her E"FORMER!" dad Bruce Jenner now
E"PRETENDING!!!" aka Caitlyn Jenner.

She admitted his "so-called"
change had confused her to the point of E"Doubt!" Wondering about other peoples' sexuality [e.g., is he-she or is she-he ???]?

DADDIE ISSUES AND ASSOCIATES' INFLUENCERS!!!!

Being Bruce Jenner's daughter and working in the modeling "SEX"
INDUSTRY - I fervently pray, Kendall DOESN'T become an actor lost in playing unlabeled "sex" [e.g., GENDER!!]
roles like, e.g., Kristen Stewart,
Molly Cypus, etc. God Bless KENDALL
JENNER! AMEN! 3-18-18

RIGHTS OF PERSONS CONFINED TO JAILS AND PRISONS

Overview

The Special Litigation Section works to protect the rights of people who are in prisons and jails run by state or local governments. If we find that a state or local government systematically deprives people in these facilities of their rights, we can act.

We use information from community members affected by civil rights violations to bring and pursue cases. The voice of the community is very important to us. We receive hundreds of reports of potential violations each week. We collect this information and it informs our case selection. We may sometimes use it as evidence in an existing case. However, we cannot bring a case based on every report we receive.

Description of the Laws We Use in Our Corrections Work

The Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act \(CRIPA\), 42 U.S.C. § 1997a, allows the Attorney General to review conditions and practices within these institutions. Under CRIPA, we are not authorized to address issues with federal facilities or federal officials. We do not assist with individual problems, and we therefore cannot help you recover money damages or any other personal relief. We also cannot assist in criminal cases, including wrongful convictions, appeals or sentencing.

After a CRIPA investigation, we can act if we identify a systemic pattern or practice that causes harm. Evidence of harm to one individual only - even if that harm is serious - is not enough. If we find systemic problems, we may send the state or local government a letter that describes the problems and what says what steps they must take to fix them. We will try to reach an agreement with the state or local government on how to fix the problems. If we cannot agree, then the Attorney General may file a lawsuit in federal court.

In addition to actions under CRIPA, the Section may use the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. § 14141, to protect the rights of persons in the juvenile justice system.

Results of Our Corrections Work

Tens of thousands of institutionalized persons who were confined in dire, often life-threatening, conditions now receive adequate care and services because of this work. We currently have open CRIPA matters in more than half the states.

Our work includes many different kinds of activity. We speak with community stakeholders. We review and investigate complaints. We file lawsuits in federal court when necessary, and enforce orders we obtain from the courts. We participate in cases brought by private parties. We work closely with nationally renowned experts to provide training and technical assistance.

We work closely with other parts of the Justice Department and other federal agencies that regulate, fund, and provide technical assistance to state and local governments. We work with the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the National Institute of Justice, the Bureau of Prisons, the United States Department of Education, the Department of Housing, and the United States Department of Health and Human Services. In addition, our staff serves on the Department's Health Care Fraud Working Group, the Prison Rape Elimination Working Group, and other task forces.

Special Litigation

To file a complaint, write the Special Litigation Section (SPL) explaining the situation about which you are complaining, with as much detail as possible. If you are aware of similar incidents involving others, please include that information as well. SPL does not have legal authority to represent individuals. In most of SPL's work, a single incident of mistreatment will not be sufficient to start an investigation. The Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act (RLUIPA) and the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act (FACE) are exceptions to this general rule, and single incidents may be sufficient to start an investigation. Please include information on how to contact you if we need further information (such as an address, telephone number and e-mail address). Also, do not include original documents as we cannot guarantee their safe return. You can send information to:
