so god is great let me tell u bout it...

so on friday i was standing on the prison courtyard talkin 2 a friend when it happened . just popped a cherry cough drop into my mouth, quick as i began the sucking motion the drop lodged into the back of my throat! as it teeter -tottered i turned around and began 2 get ready 2 react 2 a possible choking! but praise god i had the divine notion 2 silently pray "JESUS", that's when the cough drop suddenly shifted n worked its way down the right pipe. amen. praise god 4 saving my life once again :)

then just yesterday the holy spirit inspired me 2 go 2 the library, the law part. there i asked god 2 bless the purpose 4 which i was there soon it hit "maybe Lauren a lawyer ?" that's important because since february 13, 2011 i have had 3 dreams of meeting a woman named Lauren . thought this meant my wife name was Lauren but yesterday i finally had peace bout the dream meaning god will bless me with a lawyer named Lauren . the best part is he led me 2 lauren devine. pray 4 me amen.

HAPPY I AM WE WEDNESDAY PRISKA

i'm ok just waiting 2 see what god did 4 me yesterday . let me explain .... yesterday was MARCH 27 the day god was speaking 2 me about regarding Release . well i'm still here so i'm wondering if the Release was of a different kind. does that make sense? also DANIEL chapter 10 teaches us that sometimes when god does something on a certain day that it takes days 2 get 2 us. sorta like when u write me a letter on say, monday it doesn't get 2 me 2 thursday . in DANIEL it took 10 days 4 daniel 2 get his response from god. i highly recommend reading the story it'll make more sense . so knowing god like i do i know that something happened on March 27 i just don't know what it is yet... but i'll find out soon. when i find out you will. promise .

did finish a writing course i was taking through the mail . did wonders 4 my self esteem as a writer .
thank u god n college guild well i pray u r doin better than better. god bless here's a kiss 4 ur heart
