dear priska how r u?

i'm ok though i did give a co-worker a attitude . was just frustrated with his antics everyday . he runs round pissed off at the world with an attitude of his own which lacks social skills,to make matters worse prison aint real big on teaching said skills. newho after my blow up god allowed us 2 apologize 2 each other. humbling cause i don't like apologizing so much so i try not 2 do things where i'll have 2 owe someone an apology. does that make sense ? at the end of the day god showed me how i fell victim 2 satan's schemes ,he tryin 2 ruin my testimony so nobody'll believe that i'm a christian . satan also yearns 2 keep me in 4ever,so he always tryin 2 provoke me 2 do or say somethin stupid. but praise god 4 god cause he's by my side 2 help me stay on course as he desires 2 release me real soon :)

well nothing else is really going still writing books n poems n missing u so how r u doin ? can't wait 2 talk 2 u face 2 face. keep praying 2 get 2 the prison in racine with the hopes that u'll come see me. so much i want 2 tell u n express 2 u amen. i pray u r still goin 2 church n realizin how important it is 2 have god in ur life. promise if i had been worshiping god from jump this would've never happened n i could have been there 2 b the bestvdad...remember god gave us boundaries outta love iam we love dad
