

What weirdness happened to you
while you was traveling?

While I was traveling from New Jersey to Georgia first somebody picked my pocket while I was sleep because it was 22 hour ride on the greyhound bus. I had no cash they robbed me. The second thing The greyhound bus driver tried to leave me off the bus with him in ~~Georgia~~ Va where he tried. Don't you know somebody would have probably find my 19 years old self stink floating in a river word to bond. Third I get to Columbus, GA all of a sudden the bus was surrounded with Dea, Marshall, FBI and GBI agents. Some dude on the bus had suitcase of weight. He went to jail dummy. The last thing happen I got to Atlanta, GA five point bus station four hours later before I get on my next bus. So this guy was walking around with this trench coat opening it selling all kind of gold jewelry. This man put me in the mind of the man on coming to America moving. He was showing me all this probably fake jewelry. Saying he was selling it for the low. The next thing I know here comes the Sheriff. Gleduale said well I am out. He speeded off let me know this jewelry was hot yo! Every since that weird experience I have not been back on a greyhound bus. What weird experience you have had? I would love to hear them.
