

Your New Life
just sit and meditate
hold on to your mind
don't take my word

try it for yourself
experience prison life
stroll through the yard
where yesterdays are gone tomorrow doesn't exist
ignorance is having a plan that can never be fulfilled

never lie or steal
strike a fair deal
keep your eyes open
watch your back
see things as they are

stand + fight or just walk away take refuge alone

quiet your speech - thoughts love yourself first

no one else will
you are now alone

your only savior Steve Burkett
