

Reply Id: dphw

May 18, 2018

I agree. Presence Etiquette is very important because we never know what the next person is thinking. I am not saying we have to leave our lives in fear. But being careful is very important especially in the era we are living in with the mindsets of people today.