

seeking a haven

i've searched farr, ... i've searched near- and am yet to be blessed to find someone to enjoy my sentiments and to share my world... i dream, but am steadily in seek!

i've classly composed pleas, petitions, and poetry- yet am yet to know the loyalty of a dove! ... i'm an avid hunter
- hunter who has tasted honey- yet in need of heaven and a haven. the hurting of thy heart will only subside when placed in heaven's hands to enjoy a loving massage.

prayers pit me on my knees; Lord, the promises i pose are honest. the hurting i ache is severe. i've searched farr, ... i've searched near- so rid my hunting and hurting, and provide me a haven who's lovely and loyal. one who'd classly contribute to the molding of a man... her praises i'll not be too much of a man to sing... thy love for thee would abound—
