KYLA,

6-6-18

You truly sound like an individual that would be interesting to communicate with. I certainly hope this is not the last message I receive from you. I also hope I can be some kind of help with any questions you might have. Unfortunately, I am quite sure there are other inmates who know far more than I do in regards to the subject of the criminal justice system. However, as you read on my profile Page, I'm not "Typical Prison Material", and I do have Quite A bit of a Different story than most. May your Aspirations lead you into helping Individuals like myself who are 99.9% good, and only .1% bad.

THANKS FOR WRITING & I HOPE TO HEAR BACK FROM YOU SOON.
