Dear Arshka

I didn't mean 2 take Ur Father from u.

My actions on the night of September 11, 1997 were supremely selfish, because at that time I was extremely selfish. Selfish people make choices with one person in mind: themselves.

It took selfishness 2 rob somebody. It also took major doses of anger -n- global deposits of self-hate. Nobody who cares bout themself robs their neighbor. I was lost in a whirlwind that included pride. I believed that I would get away safe-n-sound -n- that tomorrow would be -all better. God had other plans

Showed in the fact that the police were literally right there as I fled the scene. Obviously I was apprehended. Had no idea I had shot somebody till way late in the interrogation. As they ~~said~~ told me "thus some pretty severe s—. U better hope he pulls through" I knew nothing of hope

I knew HOPE. Now

So I Hope U can 4 give me

I Hope we can be reconciled

I Hope we see each other soon

I Hope U can see/appreciate how much I've grown
