

THE DIALOGUE OF XYZYST

Hey Verika, Tules, and The Fam, Yeah, it's XYZYST looking in' on everybody, with some good news, and I've got some better news.

The lead by creation motto of The White Or Die Zone invasions, has landed the end of an 18 year battle for the creation of an LGBTQ Spirituality Group for The Condemned Population here at San Quentin State Prison.

This is not a group where we sit around and talk about how gay we are,
which brings me
to the better news.

With the hard work being pulled by, get this, a Jewish Rabbi, a Native American Elder, and a proud out lesbian miracle that created time to engage this vision, The Condemned LGBTQ Spirituality Group is now tasked to produce and provide LGBTQ related content, from an Urban perspective for The innerprison broadcast by way of Television Access programming, via San Quentin's Media Center, titled The Sand Wind Streamer, Yeah, another Condemned program first.

I'm so happy right now, that it's going to take a few more Blog post, and Podcast segments for me to get into what's coming, and exactly what it took to get to this point.

Everyone should be excited to know that not only are there PFLAG's participating in this group, but we also have a few condemned straight Allies in the group as well, for which I'm so honored, Rest NIGGZ don't stepped up!

I went to close for now by saying that The Condemned Population and the Mainline Population have zero contact, and I was brought to tears in my lifted Spixit when I was told that as soon as the LGBTQ Spirituality Group of Inmates on the Mainline found out about The Sound Mind Streamer and New Condemned Version of themselves, the Family welcomed us with open spirits, and we are now officially connected at the Spirit, and programming function and development and it really feels good to know that we are not alone within these walls.

Our Condemned version of the Group meets every other Tuesday, under the surface of the prison Hospital, and are allowed to use a Group Room as our Command Center for Sound Mind Streamer programming.

The Sound Mind Streamer will be kicking off PRIDE Month 2018 with a feature presentation of a donated DVD of BROTHER OUTSIDER, a documentary of Civil Rights Leader BAYARD RUSTIN', yeah, it's only right that we give it up to our O.G's first.
