"Flicker Into Flame"

Ignited passion within me,
Turn my darkness into light,
Kiss my lonely days goodbye,
My future looking bright,
Conversations held hands,
Moments of the sacred, affection between woman and man.
The touching of our souls creating its own symphony,
Awaken by the angel of connection,
That you sent to get me.
Everything that came before me leave it lost in time,
You're in my world now,
And your concerns are mine.
To our new chemistry let's give a silent toast,
You've had enough samples,
Now here's the full dose.
I peer into your eyes and butterflies tingle my insides then you brighten my "Horiz=ens".
I don't know what this path may lead us to,
But I do know what, I see in you,
And that's a heart that bleeds like mine,
One that bleeds so true.
