Hey Kyla,

It's really good to hear from you and your father is in my prayers as well as the rest of your family and yourself.

Baby girl, damn what people think about your career choice, ~~reach~~ reach for the stars. I really hope that, I aint made you feel bad bout your career choice, I was just being honest a lot of dudes aint got respect for their self or anyone the 14 years, I been in prison has been crazy Kyla and, I seen a lot.

But Kyla, don't let noone put you down and make you feel bad about anything you wish to do as your career.

Let me answer your question's now.

1). I am working on getting my G.E.D. Now and, I am going to start my own business when, I get out of prison. I am studying Estate and the Retail Business right now.

2). I use to listen to all type of music, but I have went back to my roots and that's Country Music, Rock, and some Mental. I was raise on Country Music so, I listen to country more then anything.

3). Most of my days consist of reading books, studying Estate and Retail Business and also Financing.

4). I did write a lot of poetry and, I don't even do that no more at all. My mind be on my freedom and studying the Business'es, I wish to get into that it really.

However, I have a few question's for you.

1). What state are you from???

2). What type of music you like???

3). What makes happy and what makes you sad???

4). What does most of your days consist of???

5). If you wrote straight to me at the prison and, I sent you stamps would you??? Kyla, the reason I ask because everyone that send me comments over the years, they only sent about 3-5 comments and the company stop sending them from that person.

Kyla, I just want to keep intouch with you and would like to get to know you as a person that's all. I will never ask you for any money and ect, I am alright. So let me know what is up when you wish to write me back.

I hope to hear from you really soon, keep your head up and stay strong out there.

Always Me,
Jack M. Branch
