

BEWITCHING DEFENDANT VICTIM

Went to family court on Thursday (8/9/18), and seen the child molestor that assaulted my wife and son! It took every thing I had not to strangle the SOB. I chose not to react violently, I won't do anything to STAY in prison, I plan on getting out; and, if anything, this week proved I have no anger issues.

My "Helen"--Jaime Beth--being there, sitting across from me, was a source of strength for me. She's more enchanting today than she was when I married her! The very idea of that pedo getting his hands on her, sickens me, and it would never had happened if I was NOT in this prison.

Pedos like him, with such young victims, and so many victims; they don't live well in prison! As the judge told him, "there is NO treatment for what [he] has."

His actions will catch up with him.

They say: "There's no secrets in the penitentiary."

I just hope that my family will recover from this tragedy. I'll be doing everything I can to help them.

The court of these days
Contained an angel
Still wearing proudly
The name that I had given;
for me the societal castaway
once to fare-thee-well
now a veritable guarantee to regain life with peaceful Zen.

I am working now full-time with the sign shop, where the road signs of South Carolina are designed and screenprinted; and, the job couldn't have come at a better time, because those I love need me.
