

Senator John McCain
1936 - 2018

Gone from us , but leaving memories
death can never take away , memories that will always linger
while upon this earth we stay .

We talk about service , sacrifice , honor , and patriotism . John McCain lived and exemplified them .

May our country never forget all he taught us with his life and service , and may we not fail to heed the examples he lived for all to see .