precious daughter

how r u? good i hope

i'm doin ok,just constantly meeting new people n tryin 2 b who i'm destined by god 2 b/ lotta hard work. lotta hard choices. lotta prayin lotta cryin-if need b. lotta processing . lotta writin. lotta tryin 2 figure things out. meanwhile refindin balance which is important 2 life. always remember that. all work n no play brings bitterness n angst n can lead 2 participate in wrong release valves,or the right ones used outta context. all play n no work brings similar results. a life centered solely on fun leads 2 trouble...

besides that just ordered some pizzas 4 a football game. we only get this privelege once a year so... its cool taste way better than the ones we get here so... hello real food. can't wait 4 he gym 2 open so i can play some basketball ,with the right group of guys of course.

get'n back 2 writin,believe in all my heart my memoir gone significantly help people by leadin em 2 a relationship w/christ. plus teach them how an honest life goes astray simply because satan is real as this computer screen. amen. thank god 4 bindin the devil in my life.
