Anyone that wakes up with such tendencies, should go ahead and just off themselves. I for one would never live like that. Just 50, or 100 years ago--neither would he!

I'm Irish-American, and my clan back in the day would take an individual like that, or any, that posed such a threat to children and women--and filet their manboyhood. If that didn't work, over the cliff they went.

This sick SOB even sent another child molestor/sex offender to my wife's house, expecting to get a chance to have a turn at being serviced and molest some kids too. She called the police, and had him put in jail.

That's what junkies and sex offenders do, when they don't have women to take advantage of, or children around to molest--they turn to each other. They do it in here, in prison, and they do it out there on the street. Sex addicts will do ANYTHING to get off, they'll even go to a meeting like an AA but for nymphos and sex offenders, and end up dating each other. Child molesters go there in hopes of meeting single mothers with low self-esteem that they can manipulate into looking the other way while they do what they want.

I'm not a prisoner of anger; but, I will devote the rest of my life to seeing that sex-offenders of EVERY level, get as much prison time as possible. I'll run for senate if they'll let me--and I'll create so many anti-sex-offender laws that they'll all die behind bars!

This sicko, right now, is cuddled up with another manboy at the Anderson County Detention Center, just like his other boytoy he sent to try and screw my wife the other week. They need to create an isolation of such nasty junkies and not ever let them come in contact with one another.

Search the name: Brandon Partain, and read the news reports. He should never have even been free.
