Hey Julia!!

How are you? It's always good to hear from you! (I'm assuming this is the same Julia I've heard from previously).

Yes, the hurricane that hit the U.S. didn't really affect us. I actually like storms, but the staff's overreaction to the POSSIBILITY of a storm is a bit much. There was no reason to lock us down for a whole day when there wasn't even any rain. <eyes rolling> I still remember when Tropical Storm Julia came through!

Thanks so much for the kind comments. I really appreciate it. I've been trying to get more posts in, but haven't heard from anyone but you so far. One of my friends I stay in contact with said a couple of my posts got mixed up on the dates. I may need to wait 2 weeks between mailing them to avoid that in the future. I got a book on quotes from the Library which is really good and I'm adding them to my Quote Book.

Take care of yourself and thanks again!!!
