Dear 22:

I did receive your comment, and I put a reply for you.

I also received your letter--the address was correct--and feel free to write, ask anything you wish, with no restrictions; say what you want. I'm impressed by you, and EXTREMELY proud, I knew you would go far, and knowing that you have, warms my heart.

I wish you and your family well for the holidays. Please forgive me for any trespass, 2012--was, like all of these years--very hard for me. Please remember me as I was ... not here, like this.

Sincerely, 56
