Dear Readers,

I apologize for not writing sooner, but as you can see I have been moving around from prison to prison.

and in some cases it has it been too good, I was in segregation for three additional years since I last wrote.

I was just informed by the BLOG STAFF that my e-mails were being rejected by the Prison, and returned, I did not know this, or I would have complained. Prison officials can not reject correspondence, unless it's a threat to security, so please continue to write, or answer, ask questions as you like.

I have been involved in many legal issues and continue to, but I intend to pick up where I left off, I am in a BIG transition in my life and believe that it's important for others to hear of this transformation.

And for Behind Bars staff, please inform me if officials continue to interfere with my mail coming or going to you.

And Happy Holidays to you all.

Respectfully
Pablo
